

SEND Snapshot from Specialist Learning Support

Explore the resources and links below for at-home learning and support. Parent / carer supervision and guidance is needed to ensure content is relevant to the age of your child.

Academic

Phonics:

Phonics Play: click here

Free access to interactive games and activities focused on phonics. No registration is required if you access the site as a child. Suitable for key stage 1 children onwards.

Maths:

Top Marks: click here

A collection of interactive resources for all age groups covering a wide range of subjects.

White Rose Maths: click here

A wealth of free Maths resources for all age groups separated into years and terms of study.

Writing:

Writing Challenges: click here

A number of writing challenges appropriate for children in key stage 1, key stage 2 and key stage 3.

Reading:

Storyline Online: click here

A YouTube channel where your favourite celebrities read story books. Appropriate for children and young people in primary school.

E-books through Project Gutenberg: click here

A library of over 60,000 free books. Parent supervision / guidance will be needed.

Educational movies, shows and YouTube channels:

Historical Movies for Children: Click here

A list of films appropriate for 6-12-year olds that all link to real historical events.

150 Educational shows to stream on Netflix: click here

A comprehensive list of educational shows on topics such as animals, nature, space, history and dinosaurs.

50 YouTube Channels for Home Learning: click here

A vast collection of YouTube videos covering English, Maths, Science, Geography, History, and more.

Useful resources for all academic subjects (registration needed)

Oxford Owl for Home: click here

Free resources, educational activities and games as well free access to the e-library. These resources are suitable for key stage 1 onwards.

Twinkl: click here

Free access to Twinkl's library of resources for Early Years Foundation Stage, Primary and Secondary ages. A dedicated Parents' Hub is available to support.

Museums, Art and Culture

Black Country Museum Virtual Tour: click here

A virtual tour of the mines at the Black Country Living Museum. Appropriate for children in key stage 2 onwards.

12 Famous Museums and Galleries you can visit from your couch: click here

A list from BoredPanda with links to virtual tours to some of the best museums and galleries in the world. Appropriate for children and young people in key stage 2 onwards with parent supervision/guidance.

Staying Healthy and Active

Cosmic Kids: click here

A YouTube channel dedicated to Yoga for children and young people. Appropriate for children in key stage 1 and key stage 2.

Healthy Habits from Sesame Street: click here

Some excellent advice from the Sesame Street characters and some other famous faces. Appropriate for children in key stage 1.

A daily schedule: click here

A daily schedule helps to keep children and young people in a routine. Click above for an example from the ADHD Foundation. This resource is appropriate for children and young people of any age.

How to support children who are worried about Coronavirus / Covid-19

Coronavirus Social Story: click here

A helpful tool from 'Little Puddins' to help alleviate fears and anxiety children may have about Coronavirus. This resource is appropriate for children in key stage 1 onwards as well as being appropriate for young people with learning needs.

Talking to kids about the Coronavirus: click here

Information for parents on how they can support their child's understanding of the virus and how to manage any fears and anxiety they may have. Useful for parents of children in key stage 1 onwards.

Coronavirus Story: click here

A colourful and simple child-friendly story to help young people understand Coronavirus. Appropriate for children in key stage 1 and 2.

Coronavirus: Why it might not be as scary as it sounds: click here

An episode of Newsround to help children better understand the virus. Appropriate for children in key stage 2.

Young Minds: click here

Some helpful information and advice for young people who are worried about Coronavirus. Appropriate for children and young people from key stage 4.

Looking after young mental health: click here

Advice from the NHS on anxiety, sleep, stress, low mood and mental well-being. Suitable for young people in key stage and young adults.

Useful Information

Coronavirus advice and information: click here

Click on the link above to find the latest updates from Wolverhampton Council's Director of Public Health.

Your Specialist Learning Support team:

and newest member Nikki Slade!

CITY OF WOLVERHAMPTON
COUNCIL